

EHP Partnerships

for Health Sector Climate Action

From risk to resilience:
Effective engagement on climate adaptation for health at sub-national levels

Wednesday, 2 April 2025
10:30-12:30 CEST

10:30 – 10:45 ► Opening remarks
(Robb Butler, WHO Regional Office for Europe)

10:45 – 12:00 ► Country engagements on climate adaptation for health at sub-national levels

- Fostering public engagement and intersectoral work for climate change adaptation with the Place Standard Tool: A participatory approach for health, equity and climate in all policies (Christina Plantz, National Institute of Public Health, Germany)
- Implementation experience of the Climate-Resilience Check Health: A case study from Carinthia (Elke Müllegger, KLAR! Tiebental und Wimitzerberge, Austria)
- Prescribing health and wellbeing for climate action: Climate Neutral Dublin 2030 (Sabrina Dekker, Dublin City Council, Ireland)
- Responding to increased flood risks: Measures for flood protection in Nye Førde Hospital (Kjell Inge Solhaug, Helse Førde Hospital Trust, Norway)
- Climate change adaptation in the National Health Service in England (Owen Landeg, Greener National Health Service, United Kingdom)
- Q&A

Moderator: Ilonka Horváth, Gesundheit Österreich, Austria

12:00 – 12:20 ► Panel discussion with experts

- Katrien Tersago (Department of Health, Brussels, Belgium)
- Herwig Ostermann (Gesundheit Österreich, Austria)
- Aleksandra Kazmierczak (European Environment Agency)
- Q&A

Moderator: Colin O'Hehir, Department of Health, Ireland

12:20 – 12:30 ► Closing remarks
(Colin O'Hehir, Department of Health, Ireland, and Oliver Schmoll, WHO Regional Office for Europe)

